CUSTOM DESIGNED SPORTS COLLECTIBLES

Baseball fans inspired the formation of the Cooperstown Bat Company in 1981. Cooperstown's rural friendliness greatly influences our business. When you call us you are greeted by a real person who will find answers to your questions and fill your order. To quote many of our customers... "great bats, great service."

Following his grandfather and father, founder James Spence Jr. started buying and selling memorabilia. James, Jr's reputation led to him being employed by major auction houses across the country for their auctions. Thirty years later James Spence has built a worldwide reputation as the premier autograph authenticator in the world.

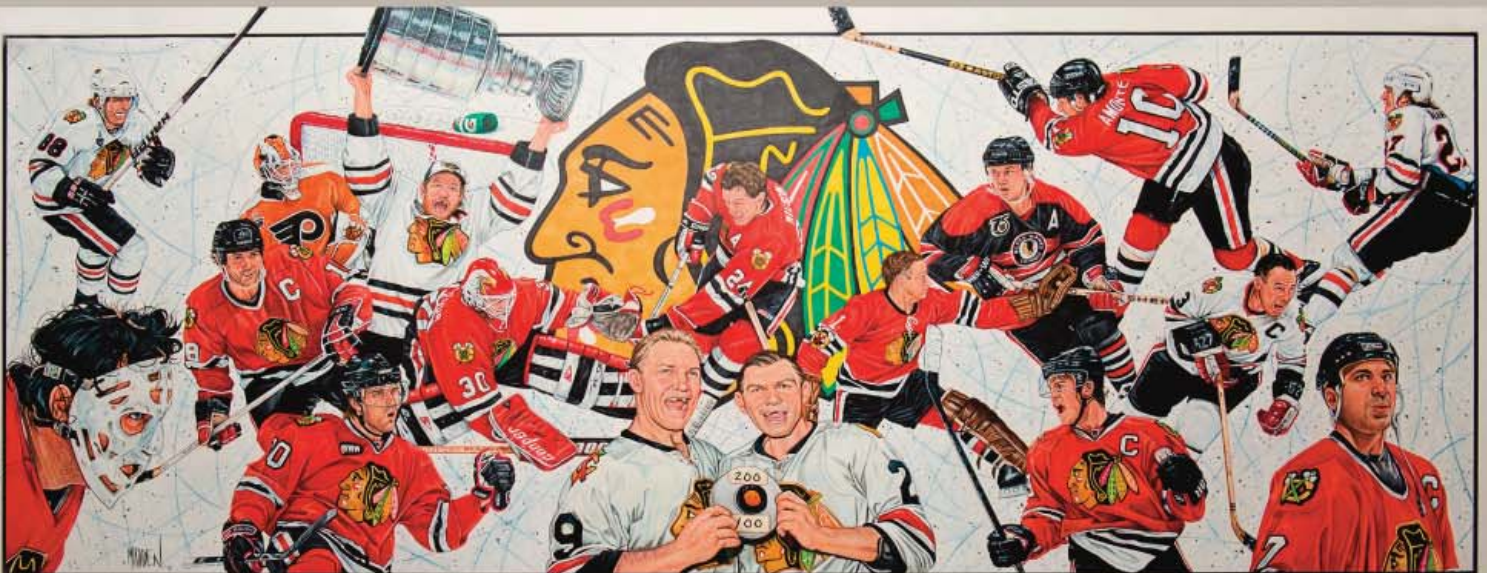

Third-generation, family owned custom framing and custom giclee art printing facility with on-site warehouse, production center, and graphics studio. Framing of anything—including art, heirlooms, sports memorabilia, jerseys, needle art, fabrics, objects, artifacts, etc. All work done on-site.

The amazing detail of our hand painted designs will blow you away. Imagine your favorite player on an authentic, autographed jersey, custom designed and painted for you. We can even make Rodman look good.

McKay Custom Sports was created to help sports fans and collectors acquire one-of-a-kind pieces. Our designers and artists collaborate with you in selecting the type of collectible, (sourcing and authenticating the elements), while designing and creating truly memorable, jaw-dropping works of art.

Our artists are the best sports artists working today! As you can see in these pages and on our web-site, the work is truly unique. Viewers are often amazed at the expertise and cannot believe that someone actually hand-painted the works that we design and produce.

The artistry extends to our sophisticated frame shop where the framing is custom designed for excellent aesthetic and archival display of these one-of-a-kind collectibles. We use the right techniques, and materials to display and preserve the collectible, including UV filtered glazing, PH neutral matting and backing, and 100% reversible mounting methods.

McKay Custom Sports routinely goes personally to the athletes for signatures. But when we need to acquire through other channels, we work with only the most respected sports memorabilia companies and assure authenticity with the world's leading third-party authenticator, James Spence Authentication.

Our mission is to help you commemorate those once-in-a-lifetime events and showcase your love for your favorite teams. From a single masterpiece, to an office upgrade, or entire man-cave, McKay Custom Sports will work with you to create something that will be the envy of your friends, family, co-workers, and clients.
